Forgive and you will be Forgiven; Give and it will be Given to you ... for the measure you Give will be the measure you get back.” ~ Jesus (Luke 6:35-38)

6. If the two Testaments seem to contradict each other, Jesus' Covenant "wins" ...

"Christ is the End of the Law." ~ Paul of Tarsus (Romans 10:4)

"For if there was Glory in the ministry of condemnation, much more does the ministry of liberation abound in Glory! ... Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only 'in Christ' is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to Jesus, the veil is removed." ~ Paul of Tarsus (2 Corinthians 3:9+14-15)

"There is, on the one hand, the abrogation of an earlier Commandment because it was weak and ineffectual (for the Law made nothing perfect); there is, on the other hand, the introduction of a better Hope, through which we approach God ... accordingly Jesus has also become the guarantee of a better Covenant ... Jesus has now obtained a more excellent ministry, and to that degree he is the mediator of a better covenant ... For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need to look for a second one ... In speaking of a 'new Covenant', he has made the first one obsolete. And what is obsolete and growing old will soon disappear." ~ Hebrews 7:18-19+22 & Hebrews 8:6-7+13
